YOUR SWING ISN'T THE PROBLEM!

You've hit great shots before. So why does your swing disappear when it matters most?

At the range, you feel loose and confident. Then you step onto the first tee… and suddenly the nerves kick in. That's not a technique problem. It's your brain running an old stress response under pressure.

No amount of lessons, new clubs, or YouTube tips will fix what's happening between your ears.

MENTAL CHEAT CODES FOR GOLFERS

- Get in the zone faster
- Calm first-tee nerves
- Stop analysis paralysis
- Recover quickly after bad shots
